Furthermore, the University of Parma is working on an international network of cooperation between universities, dedicated to mapping the structures and services available to students with disabilities. For further information, please contact us at relint@unipr.it.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Exchange students meeting the language requirements established by each Department will normally be permitted to attend courses at the University of Parma. Final acceptance will be effective upon completion of the administrative requirements for exchange students and the approval of the Learning Agreement for Studies/Traineeship.

PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

1. In order to guarantee the correct management of exchange students' applications, the students' home institution must make sure to complete the nominations of the selected students before the following deadlines:

FIRST SEMESTER AND FULL-YEAR ATTENDANCE		SECOND SEMESTER ATTENDANCE
Nomination Deadline (by the home university)	Application Deadline (by the exchange student)	Nomination Deadline (by the home university)	Application Deadline (by the exchange student)
April 30 th	June 15 th	October 31 st	November 30 th

2. Student nominations are made as per the procedure and documents available at this link.
3. The University of Parma contacts students individually after the nomination deadline to provide them with detailed instructions on the application procedures.
4. Students must submit their application, complete with the required documentation, as per the instructions available at <https://www.unipr.it/en/application-erasmus>.
5. Students will be notified of the acceptance decision via e-mail. The University of Parma issues Letters of Acceptance only for visa purposes. A declaration of exchange student status for specific purposes can be issued upon request by contacting incoming@unipr.it. The issuance of both documents is subject to the completion of the application process and the signature of the Learning Agreement by all parties.
6. It is highly recommended that students arrive and settle in Parma a few days before classes begin, in order to allow time for the necessary administrative procedures. A Welcome Day is held every semester that students are warmly invited to participate in.

DIDACTIC AND ADMINISTRATIVE ASPECTS

1. Organization of the Academic Year

Academic activities at University of Parma generally follow the calendar below; specific dates for each Department are available on the departmental webpages (see below).

FIRST SEMESTER		SECOND SEMESTER
Lessons	Exam session	Lessons	Exam session
September – December	January – February	February – May	June – July

2. Transcript of Records issuance and grading system of the institution

A Transcript of Records is issued by the University of Parma no later than five weeks after the student's return to his/her home university.

Italian universities adopt a 1-to-30 grading scale, with 18/30 set as "Pass" threshold. In relation to grade conversion, the University of Parma adheres to the EGRACONS system.

3. Visa

Exchange students must check entry requirements into Italy by filling the Ministry of Foreign Affairs questionnaire.

Exchange students who need a visa for their stay in Parma must use the official University portal to start the visa procedure. Students need to register \(create an account\) in the portal and fill the pre-enrolment application selecting "I want to spend a period of mobility for study/Traineeship (e.g. Erasmus)".

Should the competent Italian Embassy/Consulate request any additional documents, or for further inquiries, please contact us via email at incoming@unipr.it.

4. Insurance

Exchange students must acquire adequate health and civil liability insurance coverage by the starting date of the mobility and for its whole duration.

In case of pending conditions, the University of Parma may provide assistance in obtaining the compulsory insurance policies.

Please note that in case of internships or practical activity in Medicine or health-related disciplines, exchange students must submit additional insurances (please refer to the Department of Medicine and Surgery Information Sheet).

5. Housing and inclusion of students with disabilities and special learning needs

The University of Parma provides guidance and assistance to inbound exchange students in finding accommodation through its Welcome and Inclusion University Centre. Contacts for further information are provided below:
