

UNIVERSITÀ
DI PARMA

WORKSHOP:

The Contribution of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights to Effective Judicial Protection under EU Law

WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE PROJECT “ACTIVE CHARTER TRAINING THROUGH INTERACTION OF NATIONAL EXPERIENCES” (ACTIONES)

FUNDED BY THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS&CITIZENSHIP PROGRAMME

UNIVERSITY OF PARMA, 30 – 31 JANUARY 2017

The ACTIONES Project is coordinated by the EUI Centre for Judicial Cooperation, and includes 7 leading academic institutions, a European-wide association of judges, and 9 national institutions entrusted with the task of training judges and lawyers. It is a manifestation of the conviction that a high and coherent standard of fundamental rights protection within the EU requires way more than simple knowledge of the Charter. This must be complemented by deep social and political sensitivity, awareness and swiftness in adopting procedural solutions offered by various legal orders, openness to their products, and readiness to engage in exchanges of views. These qualities must be nurtured with the awareness of resource limitations that judges and lawyers face in their everyday work. The Project aims at providing answers to all the above needs through the elaboration of an easy-to-use toolkit through which legal practitioners will become familiar with the techniques of vertical and horizontal judicial interaction, ensuring thus the effective implementation of the Charter and adequate remedies to its violations.
