TRAINING OBJECTIVES
The project of the doctoral course in Law Sciences is developed by a plurality of higher education activities, throughout the three-year period and divided into various types. First of all, the PhD program intends to enhance - from the first year - interdisciplinary / multidisciplinary / transdisciplinary activities, through the provision of various courses, concerning topics of general or transversal legal interest. The related courses (some delivered exclusively in English) will be held by 1st and 2nd level professors and by RTD-B researchers, as well as by experts from the various scientific disciplinary sectors involved, so as to favor the acquisition of skills and professionalism truly adequate for the objectives. training courses, on a methodological level, on that of reasoning and analysis in the legal field, of the in-depth knowledge required at the level of professional opportunities. In addition, the aim is improving the linguistic skills of doctoral students in the legal field. These didactic activities will take place - in particular although not exclusively - in the first year of the doctorate, in order to allow the PhD students, on one hand, to acquire a solid and interdisciplinary "initial" training, also on the methodological profiles and tools necessary for research ; on the other hand, to give them the opportunity in subsequent years to improve their skills in specific disciplinary sectors, also through periods of stay abroad, in view, then, of the drafting of the doctoral thesis. The PhD course also provides for strengthening the theoretical skills of the students through the conduct of lessons (also in a foreign language) on legal issues related to the individual scientific disciplinary sectors referable to "Area 12" /Law Science), held by 1st or 2nd level professors. o by RTD-B researchers Italian or foreign, as well as by experts in the field, including foreigners. Finally, the doctoral course intends to enrich the training of PhD students, encouraging their participation in conferences, study meetings, seminars (typically, although not exclusively, organized or sponsored by universities, including foreign ones, and by national or international research bodies), also abroad, which from time to time will be accredited as moments of common, interdisciplinary or sector teaching.
