APPLICATION DEADLINE: 09th SEPTEMBER 2025 AT 01 pm (Italian time)

Issued with Rector's Decree 1320/2025 Prot. n. 0218126 – 31.07.2025

Art. 1 PhD PROGRAMMES

Public selections are held at the University of Parma, for qualifications and exams, for admission to the Doctorate in Research in Information Technologies established at the University of Parma – 41st cycle – academic year 2025/2026 for the allocation of a doctoral research scholarship funded by the National Cybersecurity Agency (Agency).

1.1 Activation and Ministerial Accreditation

In accordance with Ministerial Decree no. 226/2021, the PhD programmes can be activated after being accredited by the MUR (Ministry of University and Research). The accreditation is renewed after a yearly revision of the mandated requirements.

In the event of non-accreditation and/or non-activation of one or more doctoral courses, any competition procedures already completed will be considered void.

The PhD Research programme lasts for three years starting from 1st November 2025.

1.2 PhD Programme Table

For the above-mentioned course, research topics, vacancies, admission requirements, procedures and criteria for the selection and assessment of candidates are specified in the attached Forms. Forms are integral part of this announcement and are available on the University website.

The number of positions and scholarships may be incremented in case additional funding becomes available, notwithstanding the terms of the application process as detailed in Art. 3. Any amendment, update or integration of the Programme Table will be published only on the University website. Should further ministerial or regional financing become available, the positions and scholarships may increase even after the deadline of the announcement.

The number of positions and scholarships may be incremented in case additional funding becomes available

The increase in scholarships determine the increase in the number of place available globally.

This announcement is to be considered an official notification.

1.3 Available PhD Positions

The position subject to this announcement is detailed in the sheet attached to this announcement.

Art. 2

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

2.1 General Requirements

Regardless of age and citizenship status, applicants can be admitted to the selection procedure if they have been awarded at least one of the following degrees:

- a) Laurea Magistrale, Magistrale a ciclo unico or Laurea Specialistica (Italian Second-Cycle Degree);
- b) Laurea di Vecchio Ordinamento (pre-1999 reform);
- c) A Second-Cycle Degree awarded by academic institutions part of AFAM (Alta Formazione Artistica e Musicale);
- d) A non-Italian Degree awarded by an academic institution., The degree will have to be comparable to an Italian one that grants admission to the PhD programme, in terms of length, level and if possible of field of education. This degree must also be recognized as eligible even for the sole purpose of admission to the selection.

Applicants who are yet to obtain their Second-Cycle Degree are admitted to the selection procedure on condition that they obtain their degree no later than October 31st, 2025 (enrolment deadline).

The attached Forms, which are integral part of this announcement, specify for each PhD course the type of academic qualifications or additional requirements necessary for the admission in the selection.

Candidates that already hold a research doctoral degree may be admitted to attend, granted that the selection tests are sat and passed, another research doctorate program without any scholarship coverage.

2.2 Academic Degree obtained abroad

The eligibility of foreign academic degrees shall be verified by the Examination Board in charge of admission, in compliance with the applicable legislation in Italy and in the Country where the academic degree has been issued, as well as in compliance with any international agreements or treaties concerning the recognition of educational degrees for higher education.

Applying for admission entails an implicit request to assess the eligibility of the academic degree attained abroad. To this end, candidates must also attach the following documents to the online application, in addition to what is established in the following Art. 3.2:

- a) a certificate of their academic degree listing the exams sat and passed with the relevant mark, specifying the minimum and maximum vote provided for in the educational system of your country. EU citizens may use a statutory declaration in lieu of the certificate, pursuant to Italian Presidential Decree No. 445/2000 as amended;
- b) English translation of the certificate as per item a), signed by the candidate under their responsibility, only where this document is not originally in English;
- c) any other documents useful to assess the academic degree eligibility (Diploma Supplement, etc.)

Art. 3

HOW TO APPLY

3.1 Application

The application for admission to the selection must be submitted online by 1:00 PM (local time) on September 9, 2025. (Italian time, final deadline).

A € 30,00 application fee, non-refundable, is to be paid within the above mentioned deadline. Payment must be made September 9, 2025.

The application , including the documentation reported below, must be submitted exclusively through the Esse3 Portal application, available from 12.00 (local time) on 20st August 2025.

Candidates already in possession of login credentials for the Esse3 Portal application, will have use the latter. In case of loss or prolonged inactivity of the access credentials, it is possible to proceed with the password recovery, following the procedure indicated. Please note that if you have previously participated, even once, in a selection procedure or attended a course at the University of Parma you are already in possession of the credentials and will not be able to register again with the same personal data. It will therefore be necessary to reactivate the credentials, in the manner described. 9	DISTANCE ORAL EXAMINATION REQUEST FORM	ONLY AND EXCLUSIVELY IF EXPLICITLY PROVIDED FOR IN THE FORM OF THE CHOSEN PHD COURSE

All documents written in a language other than Italian will have to be translated into English, otherwise they will not be evaluated. For identity documents and degrees issued in a language different from Italian or English, an official translation is required. The translation shall be drawn up by an authorized body or by the awarding University.

According to current legislation, the University must reject certifications issued by other Italian public administrations. Therefore, academic degrees must be attested only using self-certification if awarded by Italian public universities.

On the University website applicants may download a self-certification fac-simile to be used in the case the academic qualifications attained in other Italian public universities.

After verification, if the qualifications do not comply with the requirements, pursuant to art. 2, or the declarations produced are not truthful, the University may dispose for the exclusion from the selection or from the PhD course, with a provision of the Rector, at any time, even after enrolment and the beginning of the course.

Art. 4 SELECTION PROCEDURE

Admission shall consist on a comparative selection based on qualifications and possibly a public oral test.

The examination dates, the selection procedures and the assessment criteria for the admission to the PhD Programmes are described in the PhD Programme Table in attachment and are integral part of the present Call for applications and also available in the webpage of each PhD Programme on the University website.

The oral exam will take place in the presence.

Within the limits and only and exclusively if provided for by the individual course Forms, the oral exam may, at the request of the candidate, be taken remotely using the Microsoft Teams platform. Applicants are responsible for providing adequate audio and video equipment for the use this platform.

The publication of the oral exam calendar shall amount to a formal notification. Therefore, candidates shall present themselves, without any prior notice, call or communication regarding the admission exams, at the examination venue, on the day and at the time set forth in the Forms. Please note the candidates will have to exhibit a valid identification that has a photograph of the holder, issued by an official Public Administration and the receipt of the competition fee.

Only and exclusively, if provided for in the relative Form of the chosen PhD programme, the test may be held in a language other than Italian.

Examination results will be published on the Esse3 Portal application The publication of such results on the website is equivalent to receiving a notification. No notification will be sent to applicants via e-mail.

The results of the qualifications assesement will be displayed a few days before the date scheduled for the oral test.

It is the candidate's responsibility to verify the outcome of the evaluation of qualifications, which can be consulted in their reserved area in the days preceding the date of the Oral Exam.

4.1 Special provisions for remote oral test

Applicants wishing to take the oral examination remotely are required to ensure that such modality is provided for in the relevant PhD programme Table and to check any specific indications.

Only and exclusively if explicitly provided for the oral exam remotely is taken via the Microsoft Teams platform. The link to connect to the virtual room for the examination will be sent by the Examination Board to the email address indicated in the "DISTANCE ORAL EXAMINATION REQUEST FORM", completed and signed and attached to the online application.

In order to take the examination, applicants shall connect to the Teams session via the mentioned link on the day set for the oral test. The Examination Board may choose together with the candidate a time for the beginning of the interview.

For identification purposes and under penalty of exclusion from the selection procedure, each candidate shall identify themselves, before the interview begins, by showing the same identification that has been attached to the selection application.

In the event a candidate fails to communicate their personal address, fails to connect, or is not available on the day and time agreed or fails to show a valid identification, pursuant to the previous paragraph, all these shall be ground to exclude them from the selection procedure.

These causes of exclusion do not apply if the candidate, with a valid identification, presents themselves on the day set for the interview in order to sit for the oral exam "in person".

Technical connection problems during the remote oral exam:

- a) in the event that the connection problem concerns one or more committee members, the interview is postponed ex-officio to another date of which will be given appropriate and adequate publicity;
- b) in the event that the connection concerns the candidate admitted to the interview, the committee may reasonably postpone the interview to another date, in compliance with the principles of non-discrimination and equal treatment between the candidates that will be given appropriate and adequate communication.

The University of Parma shall not be responsible for any technical causes which prevent the oral interview from being carried out regularly.

The acceptance of any requests to take the oral exam at a distance received after the expiry of the competition will be judged discretionally by the Examination Board, taking into account the particular needs expressed by the candidate who may go to preclude the possibility of taking the oral examination in attendance.

Art. 5 EXAMINATION BOARD

Examination Board shall be appointed by the Rector and composed in accordance with Article 5 of the Regulation concerning Research Doctorate degrees of the University of Parma.

The composition of the single Boards shall be published, by the deadline of this announcement on the University website.

The Examination Board will not send any personal communication to the candidates regarding the outcome of the selection tests: it will be the exclusive responsibility of the candidates to inform themselves through the methods described in art. 4 and the subsequent art. 7 of this notice.

Art. 6

FINAL RANKING LIST

The Examination Board may award a total of 120 points. The attribution of points to qualifications and projects, including the minimum score required to be admitted to the oral test, is set forth in the Forms relating to the single PhD programme.

To qualify, a total score not lower than 70 points is required. The final score shall be the sum of the points obtained in the qualifications and in each oral test.

In case of scholarships linked to specific topics, during the oral test, the candidates will have the possibility to express their interest for one or more scholarships linked to the specific topics. The Examination Board will express a suitability assessment for the allocation of the scholarships linked to specific topics, taking into account specific skills, experiences and aptitudes of the candidates.

The expression of interest can be presented by filling in the dedicated section of Annex A and by confirming it during the oral test before the interview begins. This declaration does NOT preclude the possibility of applying for other ordinary scholarships.

Scholarships on specific topics are those financed under certain programmes, projects or agreements with external bodies which obligatorily provide for the performance of the activity on a specific research topic (indicated in the call Form) and which bind the assignees to carry out such research.

Due to their particular nature, scholarships dedicated to specific research topics can not be assigned on the basis of the general merit ranking but require an additional specific assessment.

The Examination Board, possibly supplemented by an expert as referred to in the previous art. 5, shall express a suitability assessment for the assignment of scholarships linked to specific topics. In doing so they shall take into consideration specific competences, experiences and aptitudes of the candidates, as well as the type of profile sought, when indicated in the PhD programme Form.

In the modalities provided for by the PhD programme Form, each candidate can express their interest in the assignment of one or more scholarships with specific topics to the Examination Board. This expression of interest is not binding for the purpose of the suitability assessment.

All candidates, who apply for a specific topic PhD course, shall take part in the selection for the general positions as well.

At the end of the selection the Examination Board, will draw up a ranking for merit based on the final score obtained during the assessment of qualifications and oral test. The ranking shall be approved by Rector's Decree.

The Examination Board shall be able to express a differentiated judgment for each individual position/scholarship also in relation to special skills required for conducting research on specific topics.

The Examination Board and the Academic Board are not bound by any options expressed by the candidates nor by any project presented at the time of the application.

Art. 7

ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAMS

Successful applicants will be admitted to the PhD programme, after the approval of selection deeds, in line with the ranking list until all positions available are covered, without prejudice to the specific procedures for the awarding of the positions set out in Arts. 3 and 6 of this call, concerning reserved positions and scholarships dedicated to specific research topics.

After the publication of the results of the last admission examination, the final ranking list will be published through a Rector Decree on the Esse3 Portal application, by logging in with the same methods used to register at the selection. For the purposes of admission to each PhD Programme, only the rankings published shall be valid.

In case of equality the following criteria will apply:

- for positions covered by scholarships, the assessment of the economic situation, determined in accordance with D.P.C.M. of 09.04.2001, published in the Official Gazette no. 172 of 26.07.2001, without prejudice to the specific procedures for the awarding of the position set out in Arts. 6 and 7 concerning reserved positions and scholarships dedicated to specific research topics;

For the purposes of assessing the economic situation, you will be asked via email to submit:

- the Receipt of submission of the Single Substitutive Declaration for the calculation of the ISEE (DSU), under penalty of forfeiture, within the peremptory deadline of two days starting from the day following the day the email was sent;
- the ISEE Certification from INPS, under penalty of forfeiture, within the peremptory deadline of five days starting from the day following the day the email was sent.

In the event of equal ISEE indicators, the youngest candidate will take precedence.

- for positions not covered by scholarship precedes the youngest candidate.

The publication of the ranking on the website shall be the only official publications of the outcomes of the competitive selection and, therefore, no personal notifications shall be sent to the winning candidates.

In case a candidate ranks in a winning position in more than one short-list, he/she shall opt for only one Doctorate Program, concomitantly notifying his/her waiver of the other programs.

The choice of the PhD program, carried out at the time of registration is final and you can not change it in any way.

The candidates that rank as winners in the final short-list, who are not over 29 years of age, may be selected in cooperation with any interested companies and based on each candidate's specific skills, for a "high training and research internship contract" to cover any vacancies, where any are set forth in the forms attached hereto.

The beneficiaries of scholarships on the basis of specific topics, awarded by European and international institutions or other forms of financial support in which the University of Parma is a partner, may be admitted to the PhD courses. Provided they still perceive a scholarship or other form of financial support, they may participate in the selection procedures as described in the regulation of each programme.

Art. 8 ENROLMENT

8.1 Enrolment procedure

Successful applicants will have to complete a pre-enrolment procedure EXCLUSIVELY ON-LINE, accessing on the Esse3 Portal application from 22th September 2025, 12 pm (Italian time) to without exception until 26th September 2025, 12 pm (Italian time).

In order to pre-enrol, applicants shall:

1. Log in Esse3 Portal application with your credentials (with SPID for Italian citizens or for those who have it);

2. Click on Registrar's office => ENROLMENT => ENROLMENT Online => STANDARD ENROLMENT and follow the procedure. In this phase, the winner are required to upload the scan of the personal identification document entered and of the tax code (foreign citizens without a tax code issued by the Italian Revenue Agency will be able to attach a declaration of the tax code created when registering for the competition);
3. At the end print the Enrolment Form;
4. Proceed with the payment of the Enrolment Tax as pursuant Article 10 below (REGISTRAR'S OFFICE => PAYMENT) through the PagoPA system, according to the Italian Law;
5. Send to dottorati@unipr.it until 26th September 2025 the following scanned documents:
 - a) Valid ID or passport (both sides);
 - b) Enrolment Form filled and signed;
 - c) Payment receipt of the Enrolment Tax;
 - d) Declaration attesting the qualifications held (High School Diploma and Master's/Specialist Degree) for applicants outside the University of PARMA, according to the model downloadable at University website;
 - e) Declaration of ORCID profile (ORCID is a unique and permanent identification number attributed to the individual researcher and which, thanks to the integration with Web of Science and Scopus, allows you to easily populate your author profile with all future publications, also in order to keep track of the different affiliations of the researcher during his/her professional life. To register, visit the page <https://orcid.org/register>);
 - f) Scholarship forms (only for successful applicants with scholarship), downloadable at University website:
 - the Scholarship Acceptance Form or Withdrawal Form for the entire duration of the course (those attending a school of specialization will have to fill in the scholarship acceptance form reserved for them);
 - current account form for crediting the scholarship (enter the bank details also on Esse3 Portal application => PERSONAL DATA/CHANGE DATA/PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS/METHOD/IBAN);
 - declaration certifying the INPS (Social Security Insurance) status by using the form included among those of the scholarship acceptance;
 - Registration receipt for the separate management of contribution by INPS (Social Security Insurance) for the payment of the scholarship (if not available immediately, no later than 31.12.2025);

Enrolments and payments carried out in ways differ from the ones indicated above will not be accepted.

Applicants who do not complete the enrolment procedure shall be considered as having tacitly refused their PhD position and vacancies will be offered to the next available applicant as by final ranking. Enrolment will become effective only after the presentation of all the above-mentioned documents within the specific deadline.

Only at the start of the course will the enrollment be made final and an email will be sent from the enrollment confirmation system, containing the University credentials (i.e. student number and e-mail address). The University of Parma will officially communicate with its students only via the institutional email account for any administrative information regarding the PhD course.

At the moment of the enrolment, those who are yet to obtain the degree entitling them to enroll in a PhD programme (see Art. 2), will be registered with reserve. The qualification must however be obtained before the start of the course, no later than 31.10.2025. In order to complete the registration, candidates have to send to dottorati@unipr.it the following documents:

- a) Self-certification (or official certification, if the degree has been obtained either in EU or non-EU foreign countries, or if the degree has been awarded at an Italian Private University). The above mentioned certificates must indicate: University Name, graduation date, type of degree (in Italy laurea specialistica/magistrale, magistrale a ciclo unico, vecchio ordinamento or an equivalent degree as specified in Art. 2) and final mark;
- b) Scanned copy of a Valid ID with photo;

8.2 Replacement positions enrolment

Following a waiver by the winners of the selection, whether explicit or tacit, replacements will be made in line with the final ranking. A communication shall be sent to the applicant taking over the available position via e-mail with an indication of the enrollment deadlines assigned at the same time. Enrollment takes place according to the procedure described in the previous paragraph.

Candidates who received the notice of substitution, but intend to renounce the enrollment, must communicate their refusal without delay so that the available position can be offered to other applicants. The refusal must be notified via e-mail to dottorati@unipr.it, attaching the scanned front-back copy of a valid ID document.

Eligible applicants who do not enroll within the indicated deadline will be considered tacitly withdrawn.

8.3 Information for applicants in need of a VISA

The applicants who require a VISA to stay in Italy, after the completion of the University enrolment process, by submitting the forms for them referred to in the previous paragraph, must proceed immediately with registration on the UNIVERSITY Portal and carry out the “pre-enrolment” to the PhD programme, following the indicated procedure to obtain the VISA. After that they must send a communication via e-mail to dottorati@unipr.it of successful pre-enrolment, in order to validate and confirm the information entered, necessary for the issuing of the VISA by the Italian Embassies abroad.

Moreover, on their arrival to Italy, applicants are also invited to promptly send the following documents to dottorati@unipr.it, also for the purposes of payment of the scholarship:

- a) Valid Permit of Stay. Those who are not in possession of this document must apply within 8 days from their arrival in Italy, according to the Italian legislation on Immigration and send a copy of the receipt issued by “Questura”. They will also have to provide a document proving the insurance coverage for medical treatment and hospitalization;
- b) Italian Tax Code issued by Italian Revenue Agency (Agenzia dell’Entrate).

8.4 Information for applicants with a non-Italian Degree

PhD candidates in possession of a foreign degree that have passed the selection, shall be admitted conditionally until they submit the “dichiarazione di valore in loco del titolo posseduto” [declaration of local value of the degree held] along with the certificate of the relative exams and marks, translated and certified by the Italian diplomatic representation in the Country where the degree was attained. The declaration of value shall certify that the held degree is valid, in the Country where it was issued, for admission to an academic programme similar to a PhD Research.

If the above declaration of value is not available at the time of enrolment, a document shall be provided giving evidence that the application for its issue has been submitted to the competent diplomatic representation and it shall be turned in as soon as possible. As an alternative to the declaration of value, a Diploma Supplement can be attached issued by higher education institutions belonging to the EU or a certificate of comparability issued by CIMEA Center (further information at <https://www.cimea.it/EN/pagina-attestat-di-comparabilita-e-verifica-dei-titoli>).

PhD candidates with a degree issued by non-EU institutions must provide a document attesting the validity and the comparability of the qualification awarded (e. g. Diploma Supplement, Declaration of Value - Dichiarazione di Valore in loco - of the second-cycle degree issued by the Italian Diplomatic authorities located in the country in which the qualification was awarded, recognition of foreign qualifications carried out by agencies like the ones of ENIC-NARIC network). Those who have not provided such documents during the application step shall submit them after the enrolment, within three months from the starting date of the PhD programme.

The University reserves the right to request the documents attesting the validity and comparability of the awarded qualifications also for those issued in EU countries.

Art. 9

PHD POSITIONS SCHOLARSHIPS

9.1 Position and Scholarship Assignment

The scholarship, which involves carrying out a specific research topic detailed in the attached document, obliges the recipient to conduct that activity. If there are no suitable candidates for the assignment of the scholarship with a specific theme mentioned in this call, the position will not be assigned. The doctoral student receiving the scholarship funded by the Agency must carry out the research project in line with what is indicated in the approved research project document. The doctoral student receiving the scholarship funded by the Agency must comply with the obligations related to intellectual property aspects as per Article 12. The Agency will proceed with the complete revocation of the funding.

The Agency will proceed with the total revocation of the funding, with the consequent obligation on the part of the University to return any amounts already paid, in the following cases: a) failure to start the doctoral program in the XLI cycle of doctoral studies within the established deadlines; b) interruption of the courses due to causes attributable to the University itself; c) failure to comply with the obligations incumbent on the University as set out in the Announcement and the Implementation Regulations; d) execution of the research project in a manner different from that approved for funding. In the case of the failure to obtain the doctoral title by the doctoral student receiving the scholarship, or if the recipient doctoral student is not positively evaluated for the scholarship renewal, or if they renounce it, there will be a partial revocation of the funding, with the obligation to return the amounts disbursed following the last annual report submitted by the University. to the Agency. The sums not yet paid will be considered not due and payments will be interrupted. 3. The University will inform the Agency of any waivers by the doctoral candidate both regarding the position and regarding the scholarship even if related to a fraction of the course.

9.2 Scholarship payment

Scholarships are paid to PhD candidates on a monthly basis (payment is usually processed on in the first ten days of the following month).

The annual amount of the scholarships, as defined by Ministerial Decree 23 February 2022 n. 247, is equal to €16,243.00 gross.

The scholarships are subject to the payment of the INPS social security contribution (gestione separata INPS) according to the relevant legislation into force. Such a contribution is paid as follow: two-thirds to be paid by the University and one-third to be paid by the scholarship holder. PhD candidates enjoy the related rights and tutelage.

In terms of taxes, the provisions of Article 4 of Italian Law No. 476, 13 August 1984 apply to scholarships for attendance to PhD programmes.

The scholarship shall not add to other research grants or other scholarships awarded on whatever ground, except for those awarded by Italian or foreign institution intended to integrate, with stays abroad, the training or research activities of the PhD Student.

The beneficiaries of research grants who are awarded scholarships as part of a PhD programme must irrevocably renounce their grant or scholarship by the start date of the course, 01.11.2025, by promptly contacting their administration.

Anyone who has already received a scholarship for a PhD course in Italy, even partially, cannot apply for a second one.

Art. 10

TUITION FEES

It is envisaged the total exemption from the payment of fees or grants to the University for the PhD students who have a scholarship and other forms of equivalent support under the D.M. 226/2021.

It is also envisaged, pursuant to Law 11 December 2016, no. 232, paragraph 262, the total exemption from paying taxes or grants to the University for PhD students who are not scholarship beneficiaries.

All doctoral students enrolled in the programs shall be required in any case to pay €16.00 per year as revenue stamp duty and €140.00 per year as the Regional tax for the right to study.

As a result of termination of studies the installment paid for the registration is not refundable.

The amounts of the tuition fee for enrollment in the following years and their deadlines are determined annually by the competent Academic Bodies and published on the University web page at: <https://www.unipr.it/en/node/107457> The PhD students are required to view it through the University web site.

Art. 11

DEGREE ATTAINMENT

The research doctor title, also referred to as: "Ph.D." ("Dott. Ric." In Italian), shall be achieved upon sitting for and passing the final exam. For all information on the appointment of Examination Boards for the final exam and on the procedures and requirements relating to the PhD thesis, reference is made to the Regulations of the University of Parma concerning the Programmes for PhD Research Degrees.

Art. 12

OWNERSHIP OF RESULTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

The University cannot use, for advertising purposes or any other promotional activities, the name, brand, or any other distinctive sign of the Agency except to announce the funding of doctoral scholarships. Without prejudice to the moral right of authorship of the doctoral candidates, the ownership of the research results of the projects funded by the Agency will be shared equally, with 50% ownership between the Agency and the University. Consequently, the University will promptly inform the Agency – via Certified Electronic Mail (PEC) at the address acn@pec.acn.gov.it – of the existence of research results so that, within the subsequent sixty days, the Agency can express any intention to waive its right via Certified Electronic Mail (PEC) at the address acn@pec.acn.gov.it. In this case, the University will acquire full ownership of the research results.

ART. 13

COMPATIBILITY REGIME

PhD students shall undertake to ensure attendance of the PhD programme based on the instructions given by the Academic Board.

Admission to PhD research programmes shall entail full-time and exclusive commitment.

The Academic Board shall have the power to include any extra-curricular activities to be performed along with the academic, educational and research activities of the programme.

The regimes of compatibility and incompatibility with the attendance of PhD courses are governed by Arts. 6 and 7 of the Regulations concerning PhD courses, to which reference is made.

Pursuant to and by effect of the Law of 12 April 2022, n. 33 and of the Ministerial Decree 29 July 2022, no. 930, simultaneous enrollment in a doctoral course and a first or second cycle degree course is permitted; pursuant to the same discipline, simultaneous enrollment in the doctoral course and in a non-medical specialization school is also permitted. Double enrollment is permitted subject to verification of the requirements established, in relation to the attendance obligations, by the general regulations referred to above.

Postgraduate students enrolled in a Medical School of Specialization at the University of Parma, who win the selection for a PhD programme, may be allowed to attend jointly both programmes. It shall be allowed granted that the students are in the last year of the School of Specialization at the time of enrolment in the PhD programme, in compliance with the deadlines set down in Article 10 below.

Joint attendance shall be allowed also if compatible with the activities and commitment required by the same School and proved by an authorization issued by the School Board, also in consideration of the distance between the locations.

The PhD Board shall resolve on any request for a reduction in the PhD programme, after assessing the research activities already carried out during the postgraduate medical career of the student, as certified by the postgraduate medical school of specialization and may grant enrolment directly to the second year of the PhD programme.

In the year of joint attendance, the postgraduate student can not receive the PhD programme scholarship.
