Op Ed Publications:

With co-authors and colleagues Bridgett Sandusky, Assistant Dean for Graduate Law Programs and Jennifer Karnakis, Executive Director of the Suffolk Law IP Center, The 7th Annual Life Sciences Workforce Conference – Thoughts from Academia reflection on the 2022 MA Life Sciences Workforce Conference, MassBioEd blog on August 10, 2022. The piece analyzed the need for education to meet the gap in public scientific literacy and in meeting the workforce needs of the life sciences sector, available at, <https://bit.ly/3SBq3NH>.

The historical fallacy of overturning Roe v. Wade, Boston Globe, Ideas Section, Sunday, January 1, 2022 available at, <https://www.bostonglobe.com/2022/01/27/opinion/historical-fallacy-overturning-roe-v-wade/>.

We deserve an AG who knows justice belongs to all, MASSACHUSETTS LAWYERS WEEKLY, February 2, 2017. (Published before the confirmation of Jeff Sessions as Attorney General, the piece compares the approach to the office evidenced by Janet Reno's tenure as Attorney General to the record Sessions would bring to the office, arguing that the attorney general should have an expansive vision of justice, not a person who would narrow its reach.)

Scott Gottlieb's fervor for deregulation could harm patients, STAT, March 16, 2017, <https://www.statnews.com/2017/03/16/scott-gottlieb-fda-deregulation/>. (The piece argues that the cumulative effect of Congressional, Trump administration, and judicial trends toward deregulation pose risks to the public health and safety, relating the risks of these deregulation movements to the regulatory failures that led to the New England Compounding Crisis which resulted in more than 60 deaths and hundreds of injuries in 2012 and 2013.)

No respect for John McCain's vote on the Senate health care bill, STAT, July 26, 2017, <https://www.statnews.com/2017/07/26/john-mccain-senate-health-bill-vote/>. (This piece criticized Senator John McCain for voting with 49 other Republican senators to allow the Senate to debate legislation aimed at repealing the Affordable Care Act at the end of July. Subsequently, Senator McCain dramatically cast the deciding vote defeating the measure and, in September, indicated his intent to vote against similar legislation developed by Senators Cassidy and Graham.)
